

how long do you freeze lesions

cryopen®

freeze time guidelines

Initial freezes should be treated conservatively. Adjustments can be made according to the patient's response to freezing.

variables to consider:

- skin type
- lesion type
- lesion height
- vascularity
- malignancy

Most skin lesions treated fall in the 20-30 second freeze time range.

For additional information, view the Cryo 101 lecture on our website at: www.cryopen.com